Rajasthan has a rich and diverse history and culture, and is known for its majestic desert castles, jaw-dropping forts and majestic palaces. Relatively speaking, the state has very little tourism. There are a few places however, which have always stood out for their unique character. It's these places that we are here to tell you about. 1. Jaipur Jaipur is the home of the pink city. It's the first state capital when Rajasthan comes to mind, and it is one of the most frequented tourist hotspots. The city is said to be the most liveable capital in the world, and it's possible to see this from the very beginning. In the nightlife district, the hipster crowd of the city lives and drinks and dances to the beats of popular music clubs. Jaipur has become a must visit for everyone planning to visit Rajasthan. There is so much to do and see in this capital that you will not be able to spend every day of your stay in the state. The main attraction for tourists in Jaipur is the Palace of the Winds and Jaigarh Fort, a fairytale fort in the middle of a beautiful garden. The city also has the majestic Amber Fort, which is visited by thousands of tourists every year. 2. Pushkar Pushkar is not the first thought that comes to most people's minds when they think of Rajasthan, but we assure you that it has a great deal to offer. Push
